MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENT.

DIRECTOR OF INDUSTRIES AND COMMERCE IN MYSORE.

Official Memorandum No. 265, dated 27*th June* 1925.

A sum of Rs. 75,000 has been provided by Government for the grant of Taccavi Loans for Industries for the year 1925-1926.

Applications for such loans may be made to the Director of Industries or submitted through the Deputy Commissioner of the District.

As far as possible, no loans will be granted for starting any industry provided there are already similar concerns in the locality and the amount of business available does not justify the starting of a new concern.

In the case of such applications, an opportunity will be given to persons engaged in similar industries to forward their objections before the application is finally dealt with.

Preference will be given to applications for loans for establishing entirely new industries in the State or industries not already existing in any particular locality.

Of the total amount provided for loans, a sum of Rs, 10,000 will be set apart for the grant of financial assistance to small industries.

THE NAVINAM RAMANUJACHARYA SANSKRIT PRIZE.

A prize of the value of Rs. 100 founded by Dharmadhikari Dharmapravartha Navinam Ramanujacharya will be awarded by the University Council for the best essay in Sanskrit on "Literary Criticism in Sanskrit".

2. The prize is open to graduates of any Indian University provided they have taken the B. A. Degree within ten years immediately preceding the year in which they compete.

3. The essay should be forwarded to the Registrar, Mysore University, Mysore, so as to reach him on or before the 30th June 1926.

4. Each candidate for the essay should state generally in an introductory note and specifically in foot-notes, the extent to which he has relied upon different sources of information and the portion which he claims as his original work.

5. The essay should have a motto instead of the writer's name and shall be accompanied by a sealed cover containing the name of the candidate, the year in which he passed the highest University Examinations, name of University, his postoffice address and a declaration that the essay sent in by him in his own bona fide composition.

6. The essay must be the result of the personal investigations of the author and must contain clear evidence of independent and original research. Essays consisting only of criticisms, compilations or matter discoverable in or deducible from the writings of others will be ineligible for the prize, unless accompanied by the results of the author's independent research.

7. Each candidate must forward two copies of his essay together with a statement as to when and where the work was carried out. If any portion of the work was done in collaboration or under guidance, the nature and extent of such collaboration or guidance must be clearly stated.

V. SUBRAHMANYA IYER,
Registrar.
